

“Nobody will ever deprive the American people of the right to vote except the American people themselves and the only way they could do this is by not voting.”

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, from a radio address broadcast from the White House on October 5, 1944

As you think about this historic quote also reflect on the importance of a citizen's right to vote and the challenges we still face in ensuring that all Americans have the opportunity to participate in our democracy. The right to vote is the very foundation of government by the people.

This is one of seven Newspaper In Education features created to educate and celebrate Law Day, May 1, 2014.
