

“Voting is the most precious right of every citizen, and we have a moral obligation to ensure the integrity of our voting process.”

Official Secretary of State Portrait

Former Secretary of State Hillary

Rodham Clinton, in reference to the Election Reform Bill (2005) when she was serving as a U.S. Senator for New York State

As you think about this historic quote also reflect on the importance of a citizen's right to vote and the challenges we still face in ensuring that all Americans have the opportunity to participate in our democracy. The right to vote is the very foundation of government by the people.

This is one of seven Newspaper In Education features created to educate and celebrate Law Day, May 1, 2014.

Sponsored by the Law, Youth and Citizenship Program of the NYS Bar Association and produced by the NYNPA NIE Program.